

Forouzan Jamshidnejad

Forouzan jamshidnejad is an actress originally from Iran. She started acting in theater when she was 5 years old and has acted in several theaters and some TV series in Iran. Forouzan received several awards in Iran, including the best female actress award, in the Fajr International Theater Festival in 2005, when she was 17 years old.

Her first feature film is Mitra (2021). Holy Spider

(2022) is her second feature film. It has received very good reviews and had its premiere at Cannes 2022. Forouzan was nominated for the best supporting actress in the Robert Award 2022 of the Danish Film Academy.