India 2021

Synopsis: India has witnessed many stories of Afghani migration since Tagore's Kabuliwala, which best depicts how humans are just the same no matter their nationality. Cut to the present; "Afghanistan has displaced over two million international Afghani refugees & asylum seekers." The documentary focuses on some of these anonymous, currently dwelling in India. For whom, the crisis in Afghanistan has brought a flood of insecurities, uncertainty and tension for the future of their families left behind. Which is driving them to deeper issues of mental & physical health.
